Dr. Cordova is an international expert on regulatory reform and good governance issues who has advised governments of more than 40 developed or in-transition countries. Since joining Jacobs, Cordova & Associates as director in January 2004, he has advised the governments of Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belgium, Bosnia, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Bulgaria, Canada, Colombia, Chile, Croatia, Ecuador, Jordan, Kenya, Kosovo, Kyrgyzstan, Lithuania, Macedonia, Malaysia, Mexico, Moldova, Nepal, Paraguay, Peru, Rwanda, El Salvador, Serbia, Syria, Tajikistan, Tunisia, Turkey, and Vietnam on regulatory reform aspects. He has also worked with the World Bank, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the United Nations Development Program, the International Labour Organization, the Andean Community and bilateral aid national organizations. He specialized on regulatory issues concerning the setting up of an institutional architecture to drive systemic reforms, the assessment and reform of regulatory burdens and policies, the improvement of regulatory compliance through effective inspection and enforcement systems, and the strengthening of the governance of the sectoral autonomous regulators.

As deputy head of the OECD Program on Regulatory Reform until 2003, he worked with OECD countries in cutting-edge regulatory design. He directed the OECD country review program – coordinating programs between the OECD and APEC and South East European countries. Prior to joining the OECD, he was the General Director for the Economic Deregulation Unit within the Mexican government and previously was one of the Mexican negotiators of the North American Free Trade Associations (NAFTA). He is member of French Commission Nationale d'Inscription et de Disciplines des Administrateurs Judiciaires (i.e regulatory commission of bankruptcy trustees" in the USA). He has authored many articles and books on regulatory reform and good governance in OECD countries, Latin America, and South East Europe. Dr. Cordova has a French and Mexican nationality. Dr. Cordova holds a Doctorate in Political Economy from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, in Paris.

- Implementing the Regulatory Guillotine™. Based on his pioneering design of the Mexican Guillotine in 1995, Dr. Cordova has designed the framework for Vietnam (2005) and launched the first Regulatory Guillotine™ in the Balkans for the Republic of Srpska of Bosnia & Herzegovina (2006 - 2008), Serbia (2007-2008), Syria (2009 - 2011), Kyrgyzstan (2014- 2017).
- Reforming Inspection Systems. Dr. Cordova co-authored Good Practices for Business Inspections: Guidelines for Reformers (2006) and Inspections Reforms: Do models exist? (2010) published by the IFC and World Bank. The latter reviews systematically inspection reforms in 25 countries. In 2006, he also designed a special Regulatory Guillotine™ for inspection-related measures in the Republic of Srpska of Bosnia & Herzegovina (2006), Albania (2009), Armenia (2010), Kosovo (2010) and Jordan (2011), Moldova (2016) and Tajikistan (2016).
- Introducing Regulatory Impact Analysis (RIA) and Regulatory Consultation techniques into the regulatory systems of El Salvador (2016-2017), Tajikistan (2015-2016), Chile (2009-2010), Turkey (2006-2009), Jordan (2008-2009), Bhutan (2008-2010) Macedonian (2007-2008), Peru (2005) and Vietnam (2004); and assessing the potential for a competition impact analysis system in Canada (2005). He has also co-designed with a technological firm partner the Internet based software e*RIA, which is the first integrated software solution for systematizing the entire process of developing draft laws and other regulations through better design, RIA, stakeholder consultation, and quality control so that governments can produce higher quality, more market-friendly regulations at lower cost.
- RIA and Regulatory Governance Training. Dr. Cordova is a lead lecturer at the RIA Training Courses being offered by the Jacobs, Cordova & Associates first with the College of Europe and now with LUISS University in Rome three times a year. He also developed and led a RIA training program for Turkish officials and business leaders and was in charge of organizing a series of regulatory governance workshops in South East Europe; also participated in the EU project to establish a Masters on Regulatory Affairs at the University of Jordan. He designed and taught six regulatory governance training courses for World Bank/IFC in South Eastern Europe and design and taught the UNDP's 2nd Regional Training on Ex-ante Policy Impact Assessment with special focus on social inclusion issues and vulnerability patterns.
- Designing and Building Capacities at Regulatory Institutions in Tajikistan (2015), Ecuador (2015), Bhutan (2010), Chile (2010), Albania (2009), Paraguay (2006) Macedonia (2004) and Belgium (2004). This work has its roots in worldwide assessments prepared for World Bank/FIAS and, in the case of sectorial regulators, for the Asian Development Bank.

1997-2004 Organization of Economic Co-operation and Development,

Location: Paris, France

Deputy Head of Programme Dr. Cordova rose from administrator to deputy head (and acting head) of the OECD's Regulatory Management and Reforms Division. He led two flagship cooperation programs with non-OECD members as well as coordinating a new multi-disciplinary approach to the regulatory review program.

- He managed, edited and drafted keys OECD reports on regulatory management and reform, such as Regulatory Policies in OECD Countries: From Interventionism to Regulatory Governance in 2002, From Red Tape to Smart Tape: Administrative Simplification in OECD Countries in 2003, Businesses' Views on Red Tape. A multi-country Survey on Administrative and Regulatory Burdens on Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises in 2001; and Regulatory Governance: Improving the Institutional Basis of Sectoral Regulators in 2002.
- Dr. Cordova coordinated the OECD's Regulatory Reform Program reviews of France, Germany, Norway, Finland, Canada, the United Kingdom, Turkey and Poland which examined the pace, scope, and results of various regulatory reforms programs with each country. From 1997 to 2001, he authored reports on Government Capacity to Produce High-Quality Regulation for Canada, Finland, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Ireland, Mexico, Poland and Spain.

1997-1997 - Economic Deregulation Unit, Mexican Government

General Director

Dr. Cordova designed and managed deregulation programs in the Environment and Labor Ministries as well as for the Mexico City government. He developed and coordinated the federal paperwork regulation program -- managing the 'Guillotine process' for permits and licenses which later became the Federal Registry of Formalities. For this reform effort, he supervised a team of 15 professionals analyzing Mexico's 2500 federal administrative procedures and forms.

1991-1993 Negotiating Team to NAFTA, Mexican Government

Member

As an official member of the Mexican negotiating team for NAFTA, he prepared Mexico's negotiating position on trade and environment issues. He also helped develop Mexico's position on various trade issues for the OECD, GATT, WTO and UNCTAD.
